Weimaraner

What a regal-looking pet.
Elegant as one can get.
Ideal for the love to run.
My goodness! How well bring you fun!
Always friendly. Shows no fear.
Rides with children. What a bear.
A sent and brings to your command.
Nice to have his close at hand.
Ever loyal. Loves to romp.
Relentlessly alert and fond!
West Highland White Terrier

What: A lovely, courageous dog
Energetic and loyal
Sociable and affectionate
Tough and hardy

Breed: West Highland White Terrier

Features:
- Short, dense coat
- Deep chest and short legs
- Broad head and square muzzle
- Small ears that fold over

Characteristics:
- Intelligent and easy to train
- Good with children
- Good watchdog

Uses:
- Companion dog
- Little gun dog

Origin: Scotland

History:
- Developed in the 1800s
- First recognized by the Kennel Club in 1908

Appearance:
- Weight: 8-12 pounds
- Height: 10-12 inches

Temperament:
- Loyal and protective
- Independent
- Good with other animals

Health:
- Prone to allergies
- Good average life expectancy: 12-14 years

Feeding:
- High-quality dry or canned food
- Daily exercise

Grooming:
- Brush and comb weekly
- Grooming:

Champion Pedigree:

Registered in 1908

Breed Standard:

- Body: Compact, muscular
- Head: Broad, square
- Eyes: Round, dark
- Ears: Long, drooping
- Tail: Short, docked

Champion's Name: [Name]

Champion's Pedigree:

[Diagram of Champion's Pedigree]