Ode to The Buckeye State
The Great Lake Erie rules above,
Hugs the northern borders of
Each Ohio place, you love.
Bobcats, bears, and white-tailed deer
Upon this landscape persevere.
Coyotes howl, horned owls will screech.
Know them all - they've much to teach.
Enter ponds where beavers swim,
You'll love the fruit that's sweet as jam.
Enjoy the festive paw paw slam!
See what the ancients left behind,
The Serpent Mound will blow your mind.
And while there's room still in your brain.
